

K-RAZOR

www.rockwithu.com/k-razor/

At age 11 Ken Eversersly, professionally known as DJ K-Razor, began DJing. In Nuremberg Germany, K had an ear for new trends and quickly zeroed in on the hip hop sound that was coming out of New York. K then moved to Ft.Knox, Kentucky and continued pursuing his passion. Being inspired by such DJs as Funkmaster Flex and DJ Qbert , K-Razor competed in competitions and formed a DJ crew, Fader Ballistix, that would ultimately gain worldwide notoriety. K became the head DJ for the Rollins College 91.5 radio show which grew to be the largest college radio show in Orlando, Florida.

In 2007, he moved to South Beach, Miami where he helped open up the Scratch DJ Academy. K continued, perfecting his skills, DJing Pool Parties for NFL players and NBA players . K headlined nightclubs all over the city and pool parties at the Shore Club. His parties became a Miami staple. K performed alongside rap greats such as 50 cent, Flo rida, Afrojack and the list goes on . K was then selected to be the tour DJ for Kelly Clarkson. After which K was selected to be resident DJ for the Fontainebleau Hotel, from the pools to the nightlife favorite Bleau Bar which sits on top of the world famous nightclub LIV, which he continues to hold residency over with his precise and energetic style.